Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

Cartoon making is an art that requires a combination of hard work, training and a good sense of humour.

Cartoonist like R. K. Laxman says that making a cartoon is not a piece of cake. He says that he has to wait for six hours, which includes spending a lot of time scanning newspapers and television channel before any idea strikes him.

So how does one become a cartoonist ? There are two colleges or schools for cartoonists. Most of them comes from art college, while some learn the art on their own. Most established cartoonists are of the view that 'one may learn to sketch and draw in institutes but no one can teach any one how to make a good cartoon,' says Uday Shankar, a cartoonist from Navbharat Times. It is one's creativity and sense of humour, two qualities one simply may not have. Cartoonist says that the cartoons that make us laugh the most are in fact the cartoons that are hardest to make.
